This game cured my autism. I don't know what was I expecting buying a game that is worth of 50 cents. Well... Weeeelll. I'm speechless. I got just exactly what the game is worth.. I'd rather have played Atlas

. This game is actually hella fun to play with friends it has a pretty good mmo style loot system, decent pvp, quests(but not as many as I would like), trading, boss fights, base building, crafting, pretty good combat and overall just fun to mess around in 10V10. Got this ironically with a friend, but the game is quite decent imo. We were able to play co-op, and I actually can't wait to get another session in the books. 10V10 would play again. This game was more enjoyable to play for an hour than Just Cause 3, which is a proper full body game that I have all dlc for. All in all, game is incredibly fun.
